Christian worship, speakers, musicians, Bible study, small groups, service project, mentor groups, and resources.

Purpose

- To proclaim Jesus as Savior and Lord so lives may be transformed
- To equip young people to live out their faith in Jesus Christ
- To resource congregations to strengthen their youth ministry

This will be done through worship, small groups on life topics, and serving together as they engage in Christian fellowship. Youth will grow deeper in their faith and understanding of the love and plans that our Lord has for them.

PICK Training

Dr. John Van Epp, author of the acclaimed book How to Avoid Falling in Love with a Jerk, will be presenting his popular PICK (Premarital Interpersonal Choices & Knowledge) Program. The five sessions available to participants at Impact will focus on making healthy, knowledgeable relationship choices. Visit www.lovetinks.com to learn more about the presentations.

Service Project: Kids Against Hunger

Youth Encounter has partnered with Kids Against Hunger, a non-profit organization committed to feeding hungry people around the world. Kids Against Hunger offers a life changing opportunity for youth who will hand pack nutritious, life-saving meals to support the health of children all over the world. The meals packed at Impact will be designated for Eastern Africa, including Ethiopia. Find out more at www.youthencounter.org/kidsagainsthunger.
